

This year's Autumn programme of Sunday afternoon Concerts will be held in support of Anglia Care Trust, a Martlesham-based charity which provides a range of services in connection with housing and community safety as well as health and support for young people and families in need.

Once again, there is no charge for admission to these concerts and everyone is welcome to attend. Refreshments are provided and we invite voluntary contributions after each event. The concerts present a high quality of performance and a wide range of musical styles:

6 October: Elodie Chousmer-Howelles & Stella Marie Lorenz (Violin & Piano)

We are very pleased to welcome Elodie back to St. Andrew's following her concert here in 2020. A 2018 BBC Young Musician of the Year category finalist, she has enjoyed considerable success since then, featuring in BBC productions and performing at top venues in London and around the world. Find her on YouTube!

13 October: Trianon

It is a great pleasure to welcome Trianon to St Andrew's to present one of its community concerts. Singers and instrumentalists will perform light and entertaining music, sharing their enjoyment of musical performance with a wider audience. You might be inspired to become a member.

20 October: Thérèse Miller (Piano)

Thérèse is well known to audiences in Rushmere as an accompanist – most recently with The Accidentals – but this is her first time in the spotlight. We look forward to an enjoyable and varied programme of piano music.

27 October: Mark Blatchly (Organ)

Mark brings his extensive musical experience to Rushmere, starting as a chorister at Guildford Cathedral and later holding a variety of organ posts at St Paul's, Christ Church Oxford, St Marylebone, Gloucester Cathedral and St Edmundsbury. He is now very active locally with various musical groups. Catch him on YouTube!

3 November 2024: Suffolk Concert Band

We look forward to the visit of the Suffolk Concert Band and their conductor Vincent Taber, a symphonic wind band originally formed as the Suffolk Military Band but which (more than fifty years later) has developed into a versatile ensemble of musicians from the Ipswich area. Expect a rousing finale to this year's series of concerts at Rushmere.

All concerts begin at 3.00pm and we look forward to welcoming you to any or all of them!
